

Economic Conference to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of Diplomatic Relations between Italy and Japan

Programme outline:

Date: Monday, 23 May, 2016

Venue: North Hall, 1F North Building, Keio University, Tokyo, Japan

Organised by Keio University in Tokyo and Bocconi University in Milano and with kind Co-operation from the Embassy of Italy in Tokyo

Title:

The Economics of Italy and Japan: Historical Development and Future Policies for Stability and Growth

Programme schedule and speakers:

Morning Sessions

Moderator: Ms Noriko Kamijo, news caster at NHK, Japan Broadcasting Corporation

10:00 – 10:15 Opening remarks

- Professor Atsushi Seike, President of Keio University
- Professor Carlo Secchi, Former Rector of Bocconi University

10:15 – 10:30

Speech by the Ambassador of Italy to Japan

- H. E. Mr Domenico Giorgi, Ambassador of the Italian Republic

Part II

10:30 – 11:45

Presentations by representatives of the Bank of Italy and Bank of Japan

- Dr Salvatore Rossi, Senior Deputy Governor of the Bank of Italy
- Mr Hiroshi Nakaso, Deputy Governor of the Bank of Japan

Followed by a Panel Discussion with two speakers

Chairperson: Ms Kaori Iida, Senior Editor of NHK.

11:45 – 13:00

Lunch break

Part III Reopening Announcement: Ms Noriko Kamijo

13:00 – 14:45

Presentations by Italian and Japanese scholars

- Professor Franco Bruni, Bocconi University
- Professor Shumpei Takemori, Keio University

Followed by a Panel Discussion with two speakers.

Chairperson: Mr Stefano Carrer, correspondent in Tokyo of Il Sole 24 Ore

14:45 – 15:45

Presentations by executives from private sector

- Mr Teruo Asada, Chairman of Marubeni Corporation.

15:45 – 16:00

Q&A Session chaired by Mr Carrer.

16:00 – 16:15

Closing remarks: TBA

Language:

English (Simultaneous interpretation will be provided.)